

The background of the slide is a close-up photograph of a traditional textile, likely a rug or tapestry. It features a complex, repeating geometric pattern. The primary colors are a deep red or terracotta, which forms the background of the design. Overlaid on this are various shapes in black and blue. There are large, stylized diamond or lozenge shapes containing intricate internal patterns. Interspersed among these are vertical bands and smaller geometric motifs. The texture of the fabric appears slightly grainy, and the lighting is even, highlighting the details of the weave and the contrast between the colors.
